PM-DAKSH Skill Training- Success Story Skill Development training programme at Raigarh, Chhattisgarh

Name of trainee	Mr. Mangal Chand
State	Chhattisgarh
District	Raigarh
Name of Training Institute	OP JINDAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Name of Course	Assistant Electrician
Occupation after training	Assembly Operator

Mangal Chauhan' father work as laborer in Raigarh and had responsibility of family having 10 members. His father faced a lot of health issues and hence a lot of money was spent on that, which resulted in diverting all the responsibilities on Mangal as he is the elder son. He started looking for a job and worked as a wage labourer. But, he knew that the condition of his house cannot be improved by the daily wages. Therefore, he took training in Assistant Electrician job role through OP Jindal Community College, sponsored by the National Backward Classes Finance and Development Corporation (NBCFDC), under the Pradhan Mantri Dakshta and Kaushalta Sampanna Hitgrahi (PM-DAKSH) Yojana.

After completing the training, Mangal got a job in Yazaki Company as an assembly operator with a monthly salary of Rs.24,000. Mangal is now happy to be able to run his family.
